Official newsletter of the Newcastle City and Eastern Districts Cricket Club

1st September 2016

Welcome back Ed!

In breaking news, we can confirm that Ed Wharton will be returning this summer to play once again for the mighty Sabres. Ed has been honing his cricket skills in his homeland but the lure of the Novocastrian summer has been too much and Ed will be arriving back on Australian soil, hopefully before the season begins.

Welcome back Ed.

Ed Wharton in happy times with Newcastle City

Senior registration

Online registration is open and should be completed ASAP. The process is the same as for previous years and directions can be found at Sabres Online Registration instructions.

This season the committee is trialling a new system for payment of registration. If full payment of $450 is not made, a minimum upfront payment of $250 is required for senior graded players before the season starts, with full payment made by 15 November unless suitable arrangements have been agreed with the Treasurer.

New playing shirts have been ordered and will arrive soon. Upon payment you will receive a playing shirt, with training shirts available a little later. All information around cost and payment is found at Sabres Registration Payment info.

New sponsor

Welcome aboard to PKF who are our latest sponsor. We really appreciate the support of PKF and all our sponsors – don't forget to support the businesses who support your club. We look forward to learning more about PKF and all our sponsors during the year.
